George Washington High School

Alexandria, Virginia

Volume 24

FORWORD

Just as pure silver, symbol of a twenty-fifth anniversary, is refined, so have the past twenty-five years at George Washington High School also been refined. These years have produced a myriad of experiences and events. A quarter-century of tradition has stood behind the faculty and classes as they have gone about their numerous tasks—both in work and recreation. During their spare time, the students have participated in assorted extra-curricular activities ranging from membership in the school sponsored clubs to that of the GW Senior Band. One of the most popular activities during these years has been sports, for both the players and the spectators. Various athletic records have been made and broken by GW athletes since sports began here. Since the school's establishment in 1935, the Cadet Corps has contributed honor to its tradition. From financial aid given to the yearbook by different organizations throughout Alexandria, the COMPASS has been able to record an accurate account of this period.

All these factors: the faculty, classes, activities, sports, and Cadets constitute the spine of GW-HS. Without their support, it would not be possible to say on its twenty-fifth anniversary.

CONGRATULATIONS, GWHS

DEDICATION

Since 1935, Mr. William Hillman has been a familiar figure at George Washington High School.

A native Virginian, Mr. Hillman attended Emory and Henry College where he played on the varsity football team for three years.

Since college graduation, Mr. Hillman has taught in various schools in Alabama, Tennessee, and Virginia. The first Virginia school in which he taught was George Mason High School. He then came to GW in 1935. The subjects he has taught during his career include biology, physics, and chemistry. He was also a football, basketball, and baseball coach in the Alabama and Tennessee schools.

After coming to GW, Mr. Hillman was sponsor of the Student Council for fourteen years and is now co-sponsor of the Senior Class.

Mr. Hillman now resides in Alexandria with his wife and son. His main interest outside of teaching is golf and he has shown his skill by having made a hole-in-one.

The Senior Class has chosen to dedicate this 1960 COMPASS to Mr. Hillman in recognition of the twenty-five years he has guided and instructed the students of George Washington High School.

FACULTY

Classes in English, social studies, mathematics, science, typing, and shorthand are taught by the GW faculty. It also teaches various elective subjects such as speech arts, music, and advanced mathematics. Many of these courses have been offered here for the past twenty-five years.

The 1960 faculty is one of the largest in the school's history. Besides teaching, the faculty also collects tickets at sports events, sponsors clubs and student publications, chaperons student activities, and supervises detention hall. The faculty acts as an adviser to the GW students.

Through the years

MR. EDGAR G. PRUET

Mr. Edgar G. Pruet has been the principal of George Washington High School since 1946. Before that he was the principal of Pulaski High School in Pulaski, Virginia.

There are many responsibilities that come with being the principal. Mr. Pruet is responsible for keeping the faculty on a smooth working basis and for supervising the different activities of the school. He prepares the master schedule for class and teacher assignments and constructs the annual school calendar.

Mr. Pruet is an active member of the Kiwanis Club. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. He belongs to the First Baptist Church where he serves on the Board of Deacons and teaches a Sunday School class.

The assistant principals to Mr. Pruet are Mr. Robert Garner and Mrs. Josephine Tolbert.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

In 1935 when George Washington High School was opened, there were seven English teachers. Now, twenty-five years later, there are seventeen English teachers.

The English Department was quite active this year. In addition to the regular English classes, speech, dramatics, and journalism were taught.

Under the direction of Mr. Deucalion Gregory, the department sponsored the publication of the COMPASS, the SURVEYOR, and the LITTLE HATCHET. The department also encouraged students to participate in the annual forensic competitions.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

GW's Math Department is supervised by Mr. Irving Lindsey. He has set up a standard of teaching mathematics to students which is followed by all mathematics teachers at GW. The department consists of eight other teachers.

Five years of mathematics are available to students, but only one year of math is required to graduate. A variety of courses is offered, including a year of general mathematics, a half year of refresher math, a year of business arithmetic, two years of algebra, a year of plane geometry, a half year of solid geometry and trigonometry. These courses help students prepare for everyday life and they also help them prepare for college.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Under Mr. Stephen Osisek's guidance, the Physical Education Department provided students with a program of sports and activities. The purpose of the department is to give students a better understanding in first aid, health, and the functions of the human body.

The department consists of six adults trained to give the students a well-rounded physical education program. Physical education courses are offered to each class, but the freshman and sophomore classes are the only two required to take it.

DRIVERS' EDUCATION

One of the newest courses offered at GW is Drivers' Education. This was the third year that it had been taught. Mr. Joseph Albany was the instructor.

Drivers' Education is a course which shows a student the correct and safe methods of driving. It was open for both boys and girls, and it had small classes. A special Drivers' Education car equipped with dual control was provided.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics was a course offered to girls interested in learning how to cook, keep a clean house, and sew their own clothes. Girls who took this course also learned what style of clothes was best suited for them. They also learned methods of child care. There were two teachers who taught this class; they were Miss Phyllis Taylor and Mrs. Mary Moore. This class was very popular.

CLINIC

Mrs. Virginia Carr, R.N., is on duty in the school clinic all day to help those in need of medical care. When a student has a headache, suffers from a cut, or it not feeling well in general, he may go to the school clinic for medical assistance. Each period, two girls help Mrs. Carr in the clinic. Junior and senior girls are allowed to assist Mrs. Carr as a substitute for physical education or their study hall. A record is kept of all students brought to the clinic during the day.

LIBRARY

The shelves of GW's library contain hundreds of books; and in order to increase the reading material, a variety of new books is added to it each year. A student can obtain valuable information not only from the novels, biographies, and various other references, but also from newspapers and magazines. The head librarian, Miss Blanche Helm, and her staff are on hand to assist students.

ART DEPARTMENT

This year the Art Department, headed by Mrs. Santina Myrick, introduced a new crafts class. This class worked with ceramics, various fabrics, and enameling. The fundamentals of art work, as well as encouragement in art appreciation, were taught in both the art and craft classes.

The Art Department conducted its annual "Decorate Your Door" Contest which was held before the Christmas holidays.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Diversified Occupations has been offered to GW students for four consecutive years. Those students who took this course attended the first three classes of the school day. After lunch the D.O. students then proceeded to their jobs. Two credits were received by each student taking this course.

VOCATIONAL OFFICE TRAINING

Vocational Office Training is headed by Mr. Eugene Noel. Students taking this course go to their respective jobs after attending three periods of school in the morning. The main objective of the course is to develop the student's skills in occupational competence. There were twenty-five students who participated in this program.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Art classes under the department head, Mr. Charles Drury, are taught in the GW shop. They are intended for all students and designed to develop physical and social skills.

Among the various shop courses offered to the student are: printing, metal, auto mechanics, mechanical drawing, electricity, and wood. These courses are all elective subjects, and they are offered to students who are interested in increasing their knowledge in this field.

CLASSES

The 1960 senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes have upheld the sturdy tradition left them by previous classes of the past quarter century. The senior class consists of three hundred students while the freshman class numbers approximately five hundred. Their numerous talents cover a vast field of courses both academic and business. The boys are able to take one or more classes in vocational, metal, mechanical drawing, print, or wood shop; while the girls may take a variety of home economics courses. Each period lasts fifty-four minutes. Six of these compose a school day.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The elections for the officers of the senior class were held early in the year. The seniors voted from a slate of about ten nominees. From this slate the person with the highest number of votes was to be president and the one with the second highest was to be vice president.

Carol Thomas was elected president and Tom Kenny was elected vice president. They chose Carole Dagenhardt as secretary.

Presiding over the senior class meeting are Carol Thomas, President; Carole Dagenhardt, Secretary; and Tom Kenny, Vice-President.

LEADING SENIORS—The officers of the senior class were: Carole Dagenhardt, Secretary; Tom Kenny, Vice President; and Carol Thomas, President.

BEST DRESSED?—Chosen the best costumed seniors at the party on Senior Day were Harold Madison and Gilda Calvino.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

During the past four years, the graduating class of 1960 has experienced many memorable occasions. In their freshman year they elected class officers and participated in clubs and other extracurricular activities. As sophomores, they gave a Thanksgiving food dance and a Christmas toy dance.

Many new activities were added at the beginning of their junior year. Class cards were sold in order to finance the sending of selected students of the class to Boys' and Girls' State. The class sponsored a Holly Hop at Christmas and also the Junior-Senior Prom in May.

Highlights of the senior year were Senior Day in December, the senior class play in the spring, and the attendance of the Senior Prom. Receiving their diplomas ended their high school careers.

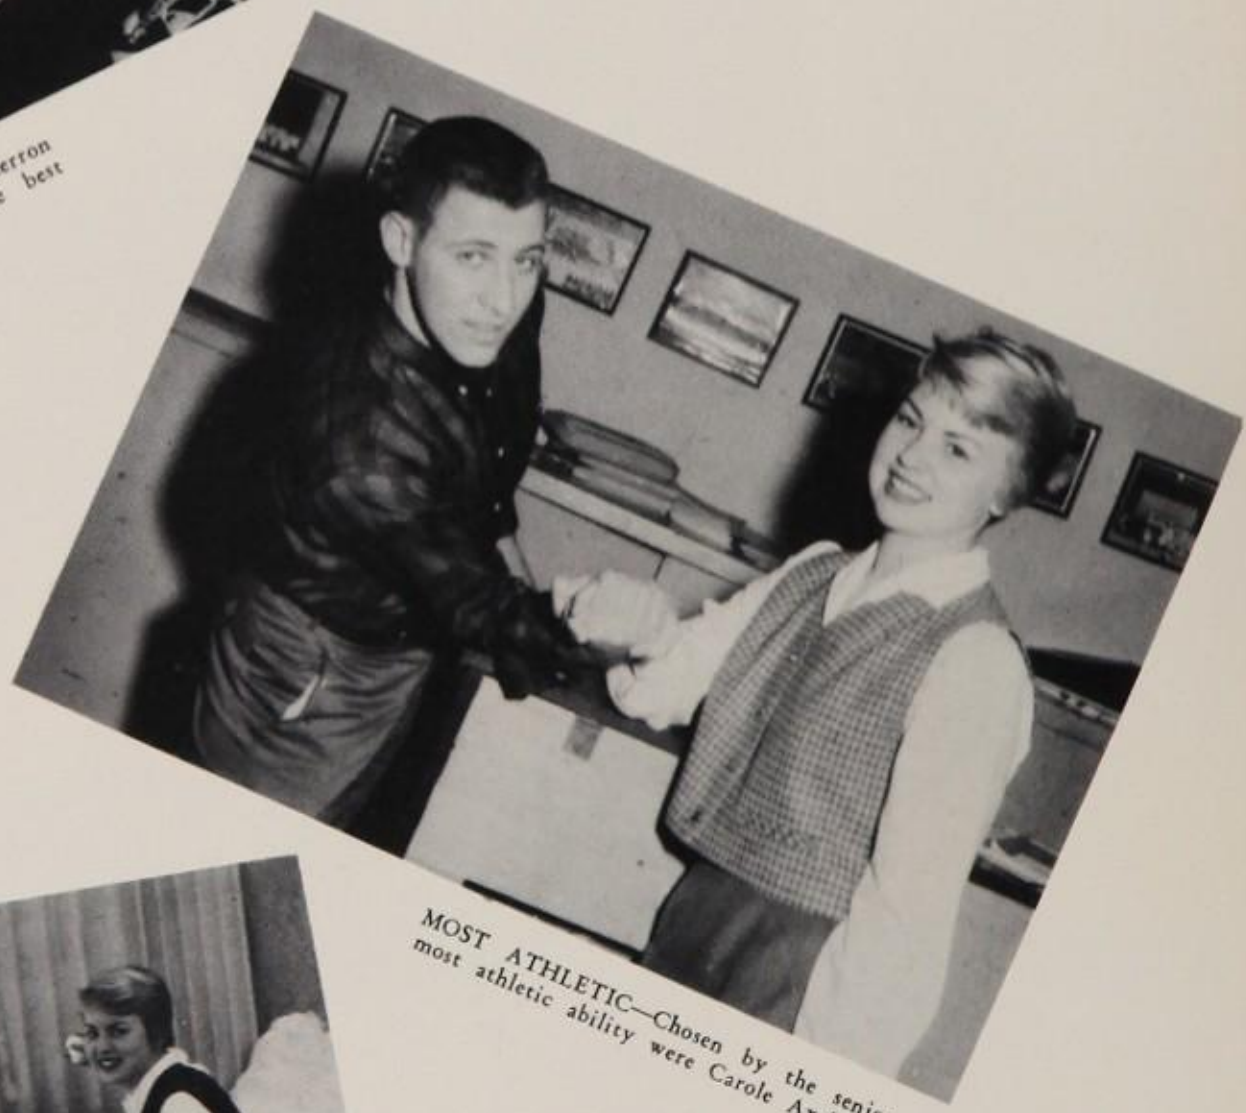
Senior Celebrities

SENIOR CELEBRITIES

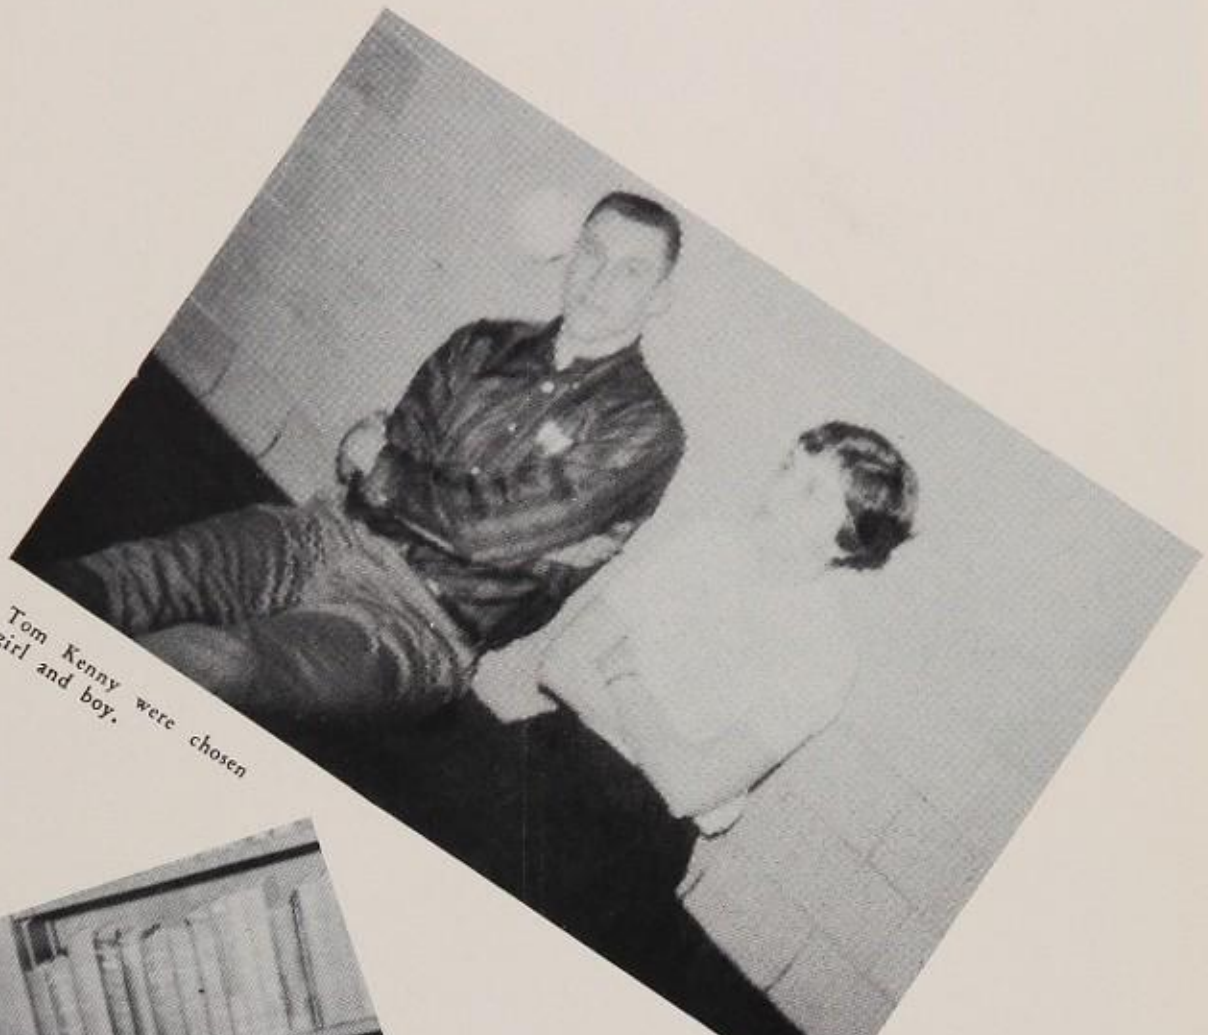
In the winter, celebrities were voted on by the senior class. A boy and girl were chosen for each classification. Carol Thomas and Tom Kenny were chosen as the most popular while the best all around were Susie Herron and Doug Garthoff. Carole Axelson and Jim Barnes were chosen as the best looking. The wittiest were Susie Herron and Bryant Hayes. Selected as the most athletic seniors were Carole Axelson and Tom Kenny. The most scholarly, chosen by their scholastic records, were Susie Herron and Doug Garthoff.

BEST ALL AROUND—Because of their versatility, Sue Herron and Doug Garthoff were chosen by the senior class the best all around.

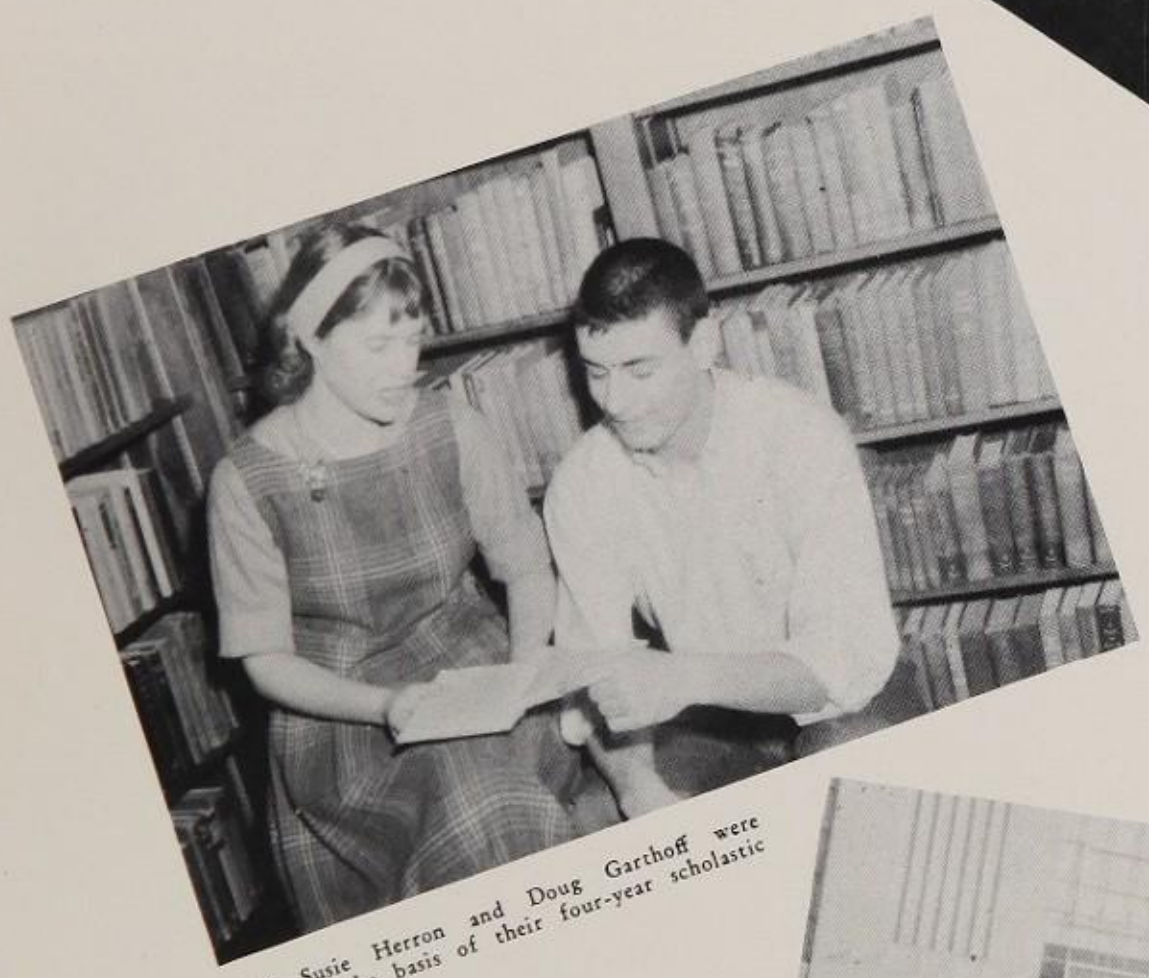


MOST ATHLETIC—Chosen by the senior class for having the most athletic ability were Carole Axelson and Tom Kenny.

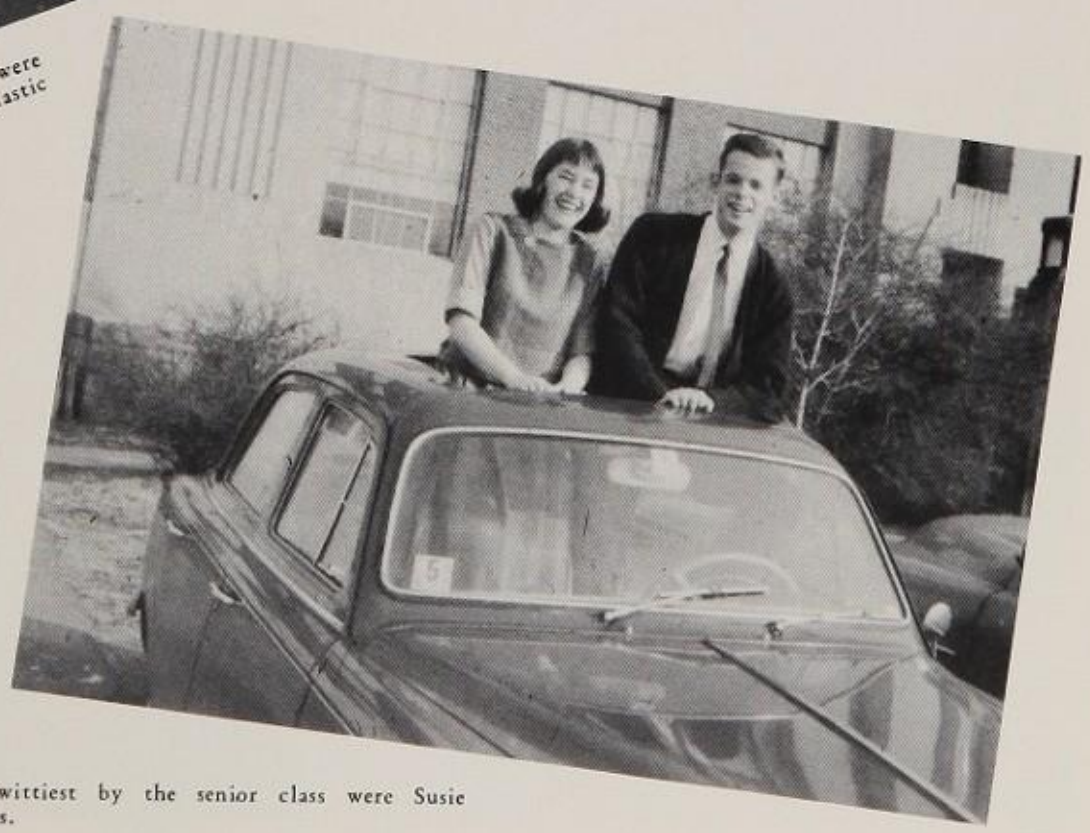
BEST LOOKING—Enjoying the snow are Carole Axelson and Jim Barnes who were chosen as best looking.



MOST POPULAR—Carol Thomas and Tom Kenny were chosen by the senior class as the most popular girl and boy.



MOST SCHOLARLY—Susie Herron and Doug Garthoff were chosen most scholarly on the basis of their four-year scholastic averages.



WITTIEST—Chosen as wittiest by the senior class were Susie Herron and Bryant Hayes.

Just One More Time

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class leads itself into a busy year by the sale of class cards. Following the sales is the annual Christmas dance, Holly Hop. This is held in the evening for the enjoyment of the entire student body.

Money received from these fund-raising projects is used to help send an indefinite number of students to Girls' and Boys' State each summer. The deserving students are selected by the faculty.

Early in the fall juniors were invited to order their class rings as do the seniors. Miss Eunice Guill and Mrs. Blanche Meadows, class sponsors, see that all activities are properly organized.

As done twenty-five years ago, the Junior-Senior Prom, held in honor of the seniors, climaxed a successful year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Activities of the sophomore class of this silver anniversary year adhered to those of yesteryear. Among these is the electing of class officers and sophomore board members. The annual Thanksgiving and Christmas charity dances are also held for the benefit of Alexandria's needy citizens.

The formal installation of class officers is held early in the year during a special class meeting in the auditorium. At this meeting students proposed and adopted plans for a Bunny Hop to be held for the student body.

Mrs. Mary Butcher and Miss Mary McKinney offered their cooperation as class sponsors to make this year complete.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS—Standing: Joanna Thyng, President; Bill Gorham, Vice-President; John Richman, Secretary; Karen Hassmer, Treasurer.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshmen students of GW's silver anniversary year were welcomed by a series of assemblies held during the first week of school. Sponsors of various organizations explained the variety of activities of which a freshman could become a part. Each homeroom was aided by a Big Brother and a Big Sister from the Student Council. Each individual was also presented a copy of "Guideline," the Freshman handbook.

The freshman class, numbering some five hundred, was soon in the swing of things under the guidance of class sponsors, Mrs. Mary Moreland and Miss Eleanor Currin.

A Sadie Hawkins dance was held in the cafeteria one afternoon for members of the freshman class only. This enabled class members to become better acquainted.

ACTIVITIES

During the past quarter century at GW, there has been an assortment of activities ranging from language clubs to oratorical groups. A few clubs such as the three honorary organizations and the three language clubs maintain specific requirements which prospective members must have before joining. Individual clubs have faculty sponsors. These sponsors make the final decision on membership in the clubs. Many clubs meet before school in the sponsors' rooms, while others meet after school in the club room or library. Each student may be a member of one or more clubs.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Included in the activities which the Student Council sponsored during the past year was the selling of tags and tickets for the football games. Other activities under its sponsorship were the bus to the Thomas Jefferson football game in Richmond and the support of the other sports events. In their drives for subscriptions, the school publications were supported by the Student Council.

The Student Council also sponsored various assemblies for the student body. Among them were an assembly for SCA candidates and a freshman orientation program.

To become a representative or alternate to the Student Council, a student must have been elected by his fellow students; after election, he had to earn a required number of points to keep his position. These students, under the guidance of Miss Helen Iddings and Mr. Floyd Mason, strove to develop better relations between parents, teachers, and students.

The Student Council had two major committees, the Executive Committee and the Honor and Discipline Committee. These committees met during the sixth period.

QUILL & PALM

Semi-annually a tea is given to welcome new members to the Quill & Palm. The society sponsors a pep dance in the fall and bake sales in the spring in order to award a scholarship to one of its members.

The purposes of the Quill & Palm are to create an enthusiasm in scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of good character among its members.

The club is advised by Miss Dolly Callahan.

QUILL & SCROLL

To be eligible for the Quill & Scroll one had to be a junior or senior, have an average of at least eighty-eight per cent, and have worked on a school publication for at least two years. It is an honor society for high school journalists and aims to maintain and strengthen high educational and journalistic standards.

The sponsor of the Quill & Scroll is Mrs. Luella Kessener. The club offers the staff members of each school publication the opportunity to hear outstanding speakers in the field of journalism.

THESPIANS

Any student in the Dramatics Club who earns enough points and shows a sufficient interest in dramatics is eligible for membership in the National Thespian Society. This is an honorary dramatic organization. The Thespian Society derives its name from Thespis, who was the first playwright and introduced the masks of comedy and tragedy. The masks are the emblems of the society.

The new members were voted on by the active Thespians; and two initiations were held during the past year, one in the fall and another in the spring. Under the sponsorship of Miss Patricia Hundley, the society meets once a month. It presented a float in the bonfire parade for the Thanksgiving Day game, and it sponsored a bake sale to raise funds to finance its various productions.

The purpose of the National Thespian Society is the improvement and advancement of drama in the secondary schools. The society also works to increase the interest in dramatics throughout the student body at George Washington High School.

LITTLE HATCHET

Entirely a student publication, the LITTLE HATCHET is the combined effort of three departments: English, art, and printing. Manuscripts are submitted by the English department to be read by the staff. The ones to be used are then typed, copy read, and made up for publication. Art work is done by advanced art students. When all materials are assembled, the printing department handles the entire composition of the magazine. Mrs. Luella Kessener is in charge of the publication.

SURVEYOR

The SURVEYOR is a bi-weekly newspaper with eighteen issues published a year. One of the SURVEYOR's main purposes is to afford high school journalists an opportunity to do reporting, feature writing, and ad layout as well as daily business management of a publication. The paper is considered unique in the opportunity it affords the members of the staff in working closely with the print shop students who set about sixty per cent of the type for the paper and do all the composition and printing of the SURVEYOR.

The SURVEYOR is sponsored by Mrs. Luella Kessener and meets every day the first and sixth periods; but all extra work and interviews are done by the reporters on their own time.

SURVEYOR STAFF

During the past year, the SURVEYOR was headed by Dianne Gruits and Lady Borton, the editors-in-chief, who acted as co-ordinators of the paper.

Margaret Young and Tom Richman were the news editors whose job was to gather news for the front page and keep the school informed of current events. Feature editor, Audrey Fendrich, and the assistant feature editors, Ellen Bussard, Sally Stukenbroeker, Janet Prisaznick, Judy Hunt, Albie Clark, and Nan Simpson, were in charge of gathering stories for the feature pages of the paper. Brian Fendrich, sports editor, and the sports reporters wrote reports of the various sports events held throughout the year.

The art editors of the paper, Rose Mary Conner and John Huetter, were in charge of supplying art work for each issue. The photographer, Warren Mattox, took pictures of different events which occurred during the year.

Business manager, Lois Kunz, headed the business department. Jean Bowling, as staff manager, was in charge of getting ads to finance the paper.

The paper was sponsored by Mrs. Luella Kessener.

COMPASS STAFF

Operating on a new basis, the COMPASS staff was divided according to the sections in the book. The co-editors-in-chief of the COMPASS were Nancy Churn and Mike Ross, who supervised all the staffs.

Among the staffs that helped compile the yearbook was the activities staff, which was headed by Judy Kruse and Bobbi Maiden. Mike Mylechraine and his group planned the cadet section. Loretta Call headed the junior and underclassman divisions, while Carole Axelson supervised the senior and faculty sections. Kenneth Gladstone headed the sports staff. These staffs made the tentative layouts and wrote copy and heads for their respective sections. Rose Mary Conner and the art staff completed final dummies and answered all questions on layout. Sarah Howard was in charge of writing the foreword and dividers and seeking uniformity throughout the COMPASS. Scheduling and cropping of pictures were handled by Ann Blair and Pat Nichols. Hugh Littlejohn was in charge of taking COMPASS pictures.

Doug Garthoff, business manager of the COMPASS, took orders for copies of the book from the student body. To finance the book, ads were collected by the ad staff supervised by Janet Thurman.

COMPASS

Meeting during the sixth period of each day, the staff members did work on the 1960 COMPASS. All layout, photography, and copy writing was done by the students under the direction of Mr. Deucalion Gregory.

Among the activities of the COMPASS staff members were a picnic in the spring and a community welfare project at Christmas.

The highlight of the year for the staff was the distribution of the yearbook to the student body in the spring. A "COMPASS coming-out" party was held after school.

LATIN CLUB

To develop an interest in Latin, to better inform the members of the club concerning the ancient Roman Empire, and to familiarize them with the customs of the Romans during this period are the purposes of the Latin Club.

Under the leadership of Miss Charlene Kiracofe, the Latin Club sponsored a float in the Thanksgiving Parade. The club also sponsored a picnic in the spring for the members.

SPANISH CLUB

Under the leadership of Mrs. Marion Van Saun, the Spanish Club met on the first Tuesday of each month. The club had two initiations in the past year, one each semester. The group prepared a float for the annual Thanksgiving Day Parade. At Christmas the members had their traditional pinata party and also collected gifts to be sent to state mental hospitals. The Spanish Club acquaints students with the customs, traditions, and music of Spanish speaking countries across the globe. Through its variety of activities, it offers each Spanish student a chance to speak the language.

FRENCH CLUB

Putting on a language assembly is one of the many activities of the French Club. A scrapbook is also made and sent to a French school. The last meeting of the year was at a French restaurant in Washington.

The purpose of the club is to give interested students an opportunity to meet and discuss French art and culture and sing French songs. This is done under more informal conditions than the classroom permits. Meeting the first Tuesday of every month, the club was sponsored by Miss Alberta Grant.

FOREIGN SCHOLARS—Sitting: Rose Mary Conner, President; Leila Donahue Treasurer; Brenda Morgan, Secretary.

OPERATION, MEDICINE!—Members of the Caduceus Club listen to a guest speaker.

CADUCEUS

Under the direction of Mr. Irwin Prickett, the Caduceus Club aims to inform and interest students considering a career in any phase of medicine. This was accomplished at bi-weekly meetings through talks given by well-informed people outside the school system and through films on medical subjects.

Among the activities of the club this year were a picnic in October and a field trip to the National Institute of Health. The members of the club helped in health drives by stuffing envelopes and collecting donations. They also sponsored a social service project.

WAGE EARNERS!—Some members of the D.O. Club work together on a poster.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS CLUB

The D.O. Club had many educational activities during the past year. Some of these were the annual employer-employee banquet, field trips to certain well selected industries in this area, participation in contests in the club, and district and state competitions. The club also shared in district D.O. Club activities and the State-wide D.O. Convention. The D.O. Club met monthly with its advisor, Mr. Floyd Mason.

Many of the activities of the club were social in nature, the purpose of the club being that the members obtain maximum social growth through participation in club activities. Some of the social events in the past year were parties, bowling, picnics, and beach parties.

The Diversified Occupations training program is designed to give vocational experience to the students who work under the program. The students who take the program are given classroom instruction and on-the-job training in the field of their choice. This helps students bridge the gap between school and work. Many students stay in the same occupation after graduation.

VOCATIONAL OFFICE TRAINING CLUB

Group discussion and preparation for an annual banquet were a few of the activities that the Vocational Office Training Club participated in during its third year at GW. Meeting twice a month, the club is co-ordinated by Mr. Eugene Noel.

During this past year, the club brought up and discussed the individual problems that each member might develop while working on his particular job. Students participating in Vocational Office Training attend school for the morning classes and then work during the afternoon. Other purposes of the club are to promote and develop attitudes that are essential for office work.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Any student who is interested in dramatics and the staging of plays is eligible for membership in the Dramatics Club. The members gain more experience and education in the fields of drama and the stage through the club; thus, the Dramatics Club accomplishes its primary purpose. Its aims are to interest more students in dramatics and to familiarize them with the stage and the production of plays.

During the past year, the Dramatics Club met in the afternoons under the guidance of its adviser, Miss Patricia Hundley. Members of the club put on programs at the meetings.

The plays staged during the spring and the fall were financed by the sale of tickets and by the dues paid by the members of the club. Parts in these plays were open to anyone who was interested in auditioning for them. In addition to staging and financing the plays, the members sold tickets for all the performances. The club also presented a show at Christmas. In the spring, the Dramatics Club entered the annual dramatics festival.

DEBATE CLUB

Meetings of the Debate Club are held once a week. Practice debates on topics of national and general interest are often held by the club. Most of the members of the club are experienced debaters who had previously been on the team. They debate as often as possible with clubs from other schools in the area which were members of the Northern Virginia Debate League. Some of these schools were Hammond, Groveton, Wakefield, Mt. Vernon, and Lee High Schools. During the year the club participated in various competitions. The main contest was the annual District Forensic Competition. The Debate Club was under the sponsorship of Miss Dolly Callahan.

FORENSIC COMPETITION

George Washington High School students entered into a number of forensic events in 1959-60. Ellen Bussard represented the school in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest; Emily Vawter was chosen for the Junior Chamber of Commerce competition, "My True Security." Later in the Spring, a speller, a poetry reader, a boy and a girl prose reader, and a boy and girl speaker demonstrated their skill in competition with students from other local high schools.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

Advised by Miss Jane Thompson, the Future Business Leaders of America met twice a month on Wednesdays. Some of the many activities of the F.B.L.A. were participating in the regional and state F.B.L.A. conventions, taking a field trip to one of the larger businesses in the area, and participating in philanthropic projects. The members had selected speakers, panel discussions, and films on the business professions at the meetings. They also discussed business knowledge and skills. The F.B.L.A. planned money-making activities such as bake sales, and it had a Christmas party and a picnic in the spring.

The purpose of the F.B.L.A. is to develop a better understanding of business through chapter activities that increase business knowledge and skills, and to develop leadership. This purpose is achieved through participation in school and community services and club organizational activities, and by the financial affairs and social activities of the F.B.L.A.

BOOKROOM

Two student assistants during each period of the school day worked in the bookroom under the guidance of faculty advisers. Their job was to keep account of the text books that were distributed to the student body each semester. The bookroom staff was in charge of the school's movie projectors and screens. All orders for new books were also handled by the bookroom.

BOOKROOM STAFF—Mrs. Reed, Supervisor; Dorothy Palmore; Ray Foote; Ronnie Dowdy; Janet Thurman; Mrs. Drury, Supervisor.

MONITORS

With the aid of Mrs. Marita Holden, the monitors were on duty in the halls every day during the three lunch periods. Juniors or seniors, who did not wish to participate in physical education, were able to substitute this class with a monitor position. Their objective is to see that students are quiet and do not go anywhere in the building to disturb other classes.

MAJORETTE CLUB

To enable interested girls to learn how to become proficient in the skills needed by majorettes is the main objective of the Majorette Club sponsored by Mrs. Grace McGilvary.

The major activity sponsored by the Majorette Club was the annual Valentine Dance at which a Valentine Queen was selected from candidates of all classes. The members also attended local and national contests and met majorettes from the other area schools. All marching majorettes were members of the club.

MARCHING MAJORETTES

Performing in half-time shows at the football games was one of the main activities of the Marching Majorettes. The majorettes also participated with the band in various parades during the year, including the bonfire parade for the Thanksgiving Day Football game and the George Washington Birthday Parade.

This past year the marching squad, supervised by Mrs. Grace McGilvary, was composed of eight majorettes and two feature twirlers.

This past year marked the beginning of a regular ensemble which met every day. The Ensemble was a small, select group of mixed voices which performed at a variety of activities. This group performed musical selections of varying types. Among these were semi-popular numbers, spirituals, and other sacred music.

Included in the activities of the Ensemble this past year was a special Christmas program presented in the auditorium of the new Senate Building. It performed for the Army service unit at Arlington Hall and participated in two assemblies at Groveton High School. The members also took part in "Amahl and the Night Visitors," a Christmas program presented by the music department, and appeared on television. Other activities in which the group participated were the District Music Festival and the Spring Concert. The Ensemble was under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Mahoney.

SENIOR BAND

During the past year the Senior Band, the major instrumental group of the school, had as one of its activities marching at football games. At each game the band, under the direction of Mr. Frank Barr, performed at half-time. The Senior Band also marched in the Thanksgiving Pep Parade. Playing at both the February and June commencements was another activity of the group.

As is customary each year, the members of the Senior Band performed in the program of the Fifth District Instrumental Music Festival in the spring. Another of their activities was marching in the annual George Washington Birthday Parade. In the spring the group also participated in a band clinic for the entire city of Alexandria and performed in the annual Spring Concert held in April.

Band members, who were skilled in the field of instrumental music, were selected to represent the school in the annual All-State Band.

SPORTS

The sports program plays an active role in the GW curriculum. During the past quarter century, the most popular sports have been football, basketball, baseball, and winter, spring, and cross-country track. With the exception of a freshman football team, each sport is divided into two main groups, varsity and junior varsity. A recent addition in the last twelve years to the sports program has been crew. Any male student having a C average is eligible to compete for a position on any team of his choice. GW's athletic program is one of the best in the Northern Virginia area.

Bill Simpson breaks loose for a gain against Groveton.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

For the third straight year George Washington High suffered through a losing season. Starting slowly, as last year, the Presidents failed to win until their seventh game when they beat Mt. Vernon for the Jack Tulloch Memorial Trophy. With new found confidence GW next met Groveton and defeated the Tigers in a thrilling come from behind victory, 13-12. Enthusiasm ran high in anticipation of the annual W-L game. Unfortunately, upon meeting the Generals, the spirit failed to materialize and the Presidents lost 40-0.

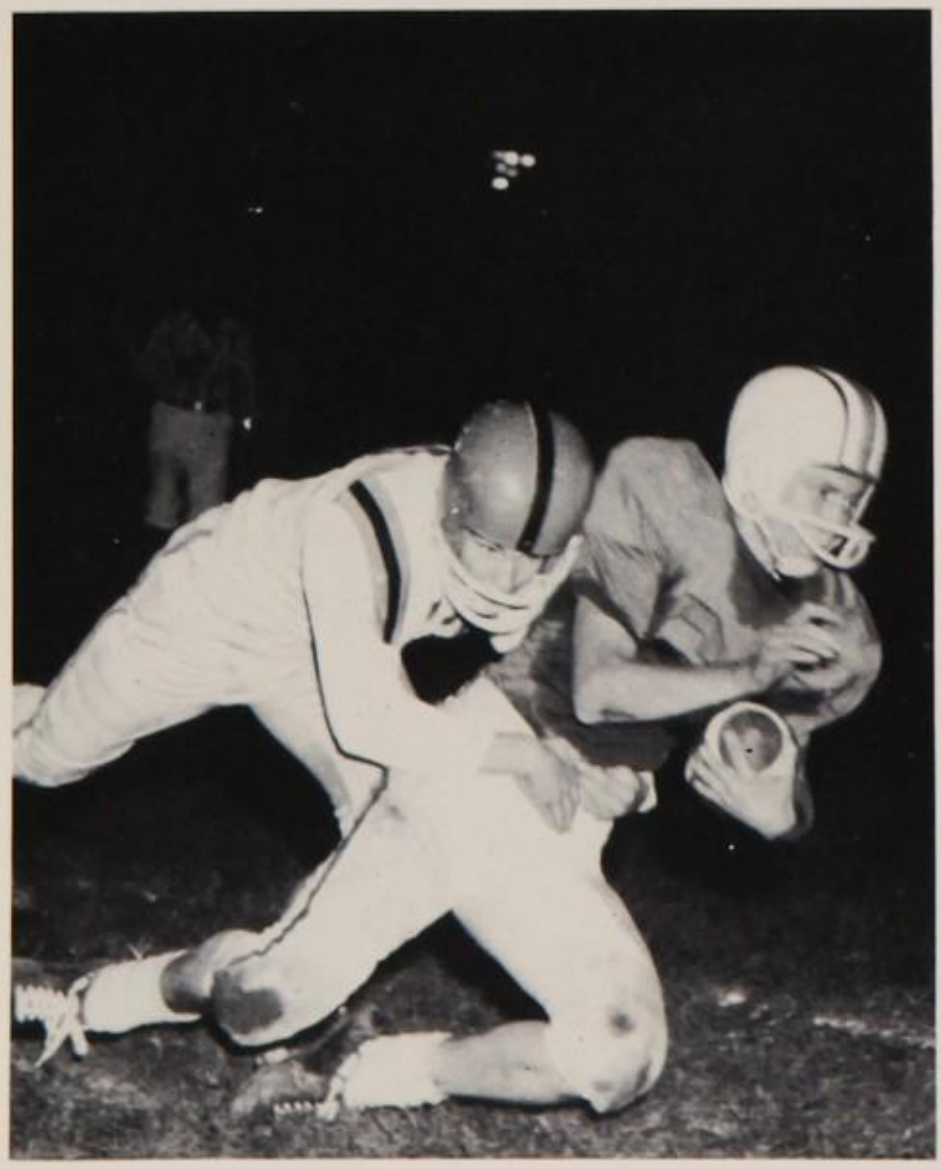
GW—0 ANNANDALE—21

For the fifth straight year GW opened their season by playing host to the Annandale Atoms. In a game marred by fumbles and penalties, the Prexies put up a hard fight before bowing to the highly rated Atoms, Northern Va. Championship preseason favorites. Many times throughout the game, the Prexies marched into Annandale territory only to lose the ball on fumbles or be hampered by penalties. GW's first string quarterback, Jimmy Arnold, was not able to participate in the game because of injuries sustained during practice.

GW—0 McLEAN—18

In GW's second game, McLean played host to the Prexies. After a hard fought first half, McLean's greater depth proved to be the deciding factor with GW's coming out on the short end of an 18-0 score. Once again the Presidents were hampered by penalties in their attempts to sustain drives. In the fourth quarter the Presidents recovered a Highlanders' fumble on the McLean twenty yard line but failed to take advantage of the opportunity. GW's defensive unit prevented the Highlanders from scoring any extra points.

W-L Halfback Bob Summers sprints past Jimmy Arnold en route to a TD.



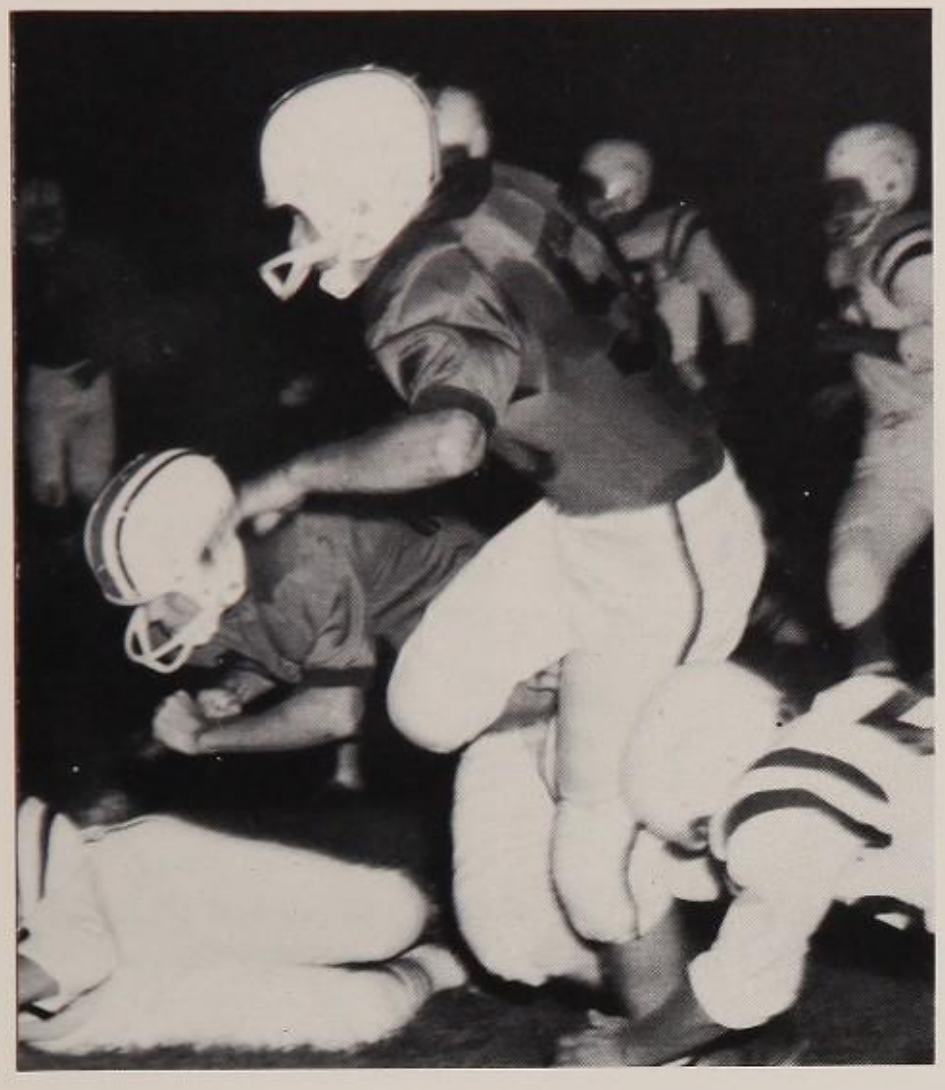
Down goes Jimmy Arnold after carrying for a few yards against Lane.

GW—0 FAIRFAX—26

Pin-point passing and a powerful defense spelled defeat for the Presidents who lost to Fairfax 26-0. GW was unable to break through the opposing defense. The Rebels scored three quick touchdowns in the first half, sensing a weakness in GW's pass defense, resulting in the Presidents' inability to keep pace with the Rebels' aerial attack. Fairfax scored only once in the last two quarters due to the stiffening of the GW line. In the fourth quarter GW pushed to the Rebel four yard line but was unable to score.

GW—0 HAMMOND—26

GW was defeated in their fourth game by a strong Hammond eleven, the Admirals capturing the "BELL" trophy for the third consecutive year. Hammond scored in every quarter, but the President failed to keep pace because of poor passing. Early in the first quarter, GW moved deep into Hammond territory with Joe Bernier in his first game as quarterback. However, a fumble on the fifteen yard line thwarted the threat. Hammond then scored and was never headed in the game as they proved too much for the Prexie defense.



Going up the middle is Prexie back Joe Bernier in the Hammond game.

GW—7 LANE—18

GW battled the Black Knights of Lane on the Presidents' home ground in game number seven. Lane jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter and increased it to 12-0 in the second quarter. The Presidents were unable to match the score and the half ended. In the third quarter, a touchdown was set up by the Presidents as Bill Simpson ran twenty-three yards to the three yard line. Jim Barnes scored the TD. Bill Marsh kicked the extra point. Lane pushed across another score in the fourth quarter. The game ended 18-7.

GW—8 MT. VERNON—6

GW finally ended its losing streak defeating Mt. Vernon in its eighth game 8-6. On a cold night, wind and wet field made playing conditions difficult. The Prexies scored first in the opening quarter when a bad Mt. Vernon pass from center went out of the end zone for a safety. The Majors went ahead 6-2 in the second quarter. Then at the beginning of the second half, President quarterback Joe Bernier faked into the line, rolled out around left end, and streaked thirty-seven yards for the winning touchdown.

THOMAS JEFFERSON—27 GW—6

The Prexies lost to Thomas Jefferson in the midway game of the season, by a score of 27-6, as the Presidents concluded their annual series with the Richmond school. TJ scored early in the game and was never overcome as the Prexies were dominated for the majority of the game and could not score on the downstate foe until the early part of the fourth quarter. Then, Joe Bernier passed thirteen yards to Wayne Williams for the lone Prexie tally. Although they were defeated, the team showed much improvement.

GW—13 WAKEFIELD—26

A much improved GW team put up a good fight before losing to Wakefield's highly rated Warriors. After Wakefield jumped to a 19-0 lead midway through the second period, the Prexies, using a new spread formation, marched sixty-seven yards with Jim Arnold scoring as the half ended. After several exchanges of the ball. Wakefield started another possible touchdown drive. As quarterback Latham faded back to pass, Marty May stole the ball and galloped fifty-one yards for a TD. Wakefield scored in the last period to win.

GW—13 GROVETON—12

With a great second half comeback, GW downed Groveton for their second victory in a row. During the first half the play was evenly divided, but the Tigers pushed across a score with less than fifteen seconds remaining. Groveton went ahead 12-0 in the third quarter. After suddenly coming to life, the Presidents dominated the play for the rest of the game, scoring once on a pass from Joe Bernier to Bobby Cooper, and Bill Marsh added the PAT. With less than a minute to go, Bernier hit Cooper for the winning score.

TOUGH GOING as Quarterback Joe Bernier makes a first down at Groveton.

GW—0 W-L—40

For the twenty-fifth consecutive year since 1935, the Presidents played W-L's Generals. After a tight first period, the Little Generals broke the deadlock and routed the Prexies to their worst defeat in the annual rivalry, 40-0. GW stayed close at the half, behind by two touchdowns, and a 14-0 score, but after W-L's Summers ran back the second half kickoff for a touchdown, the Prexies were never in the game. GW's defense was never able to cope with the fierce offensive attack put forth by the General eleven.

AWARDS

Participants in Varsity, Junior Varsity, Freshman Football, and Cross-Country Track were honored at the Annual Fall Sports Banquet in the GW cafeteria in December. Varsity Football lettered twenty-three players and Cross-Country lettered seven. Co-Captain, Tom Kenny, was the recipient of the Most Valuable Player Award. Tom also received the Dinky Scott Trophy as the outstanding player in the Annandale game. Dr. M. Delaney, GW team physician, presented lineman Tom Buckler with the Most Improved Player Award. The Jack Tullock trophy was presented to Coach Jim Ford by Eddie Crane, Toastmaster.

Co-Captain Ralph Stone bounds forward for some tough yards in the W-L game.

Around end goes Halfback Bill Simpson for twenty-three yds. against Lane.

The Little Presidents played two varsity squads, Madison and Stuart, in addition to the regularly scheduled schools. Inability to cover round-end defensive plays prevented the team from doing as well as it might have. However, the squad had a potentially good offensive unit which had no trouble scoring. The Little Presidents used a Split-T formation. The best game was against Fairfax, although the JV's lost, 6-0. All twenty-five of the team members received letters at the annual fall football awards banquet.

The Baby-Prexies, coached by Jerry Morris, experienced a successful season. Made up of GW freshmen and eighth-graders from Jefferson Junior High, they played a five-game season and received helpful experience for the future. Always aggressive, the team was led by halfback Johnny Richman and quarterback Buddy Mayo. The highlight of the season was a 24-0 victory over Hammond.

CROSS-COUNTRY TRACK

GW's cross-country team had a dismal season, as the squad was unable to score a victory in any of its meets. Having only a few returnees from last-year's team plus a small turnout of new runners this year hampered the team's depth. The Prexie harriers ran dual meets on the home course which is two and two-tenths miles long, and also participated in the annual Wakefield Invitational Meet, Northern Virginia Meet, as well as the State Meet in Richmond. Despite the losing effort, the team gained valuable experience for next year, when the whole team will return.

WINTER TRACK

The Presidents' Winter Track team participated in many meets during the early months of the new year in preparation for spring track beginning in April. The team ran with local schools in the city and nearby teams of the Northern Virginia League as well as entering men in the State Meet of VMI and the Star Meet in Washington. A poor turnout hindered the team's depth, causing it to lose meets that could have been won. However, the team gained valuable experience which it will need for the spring schedule.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

During the 1959-60 season, the Prexies finished with an 8-12 record. Led by Sonny Chisholm, an all-league forward with a 21.8 average, GW won four of its first six games and was picked as a definite threat for the league title. However, injuries plus the loss of Bobby Nuckols at mid-year due to scholastic ineligibility crippled the Prexies. Besides Chisholm they were also led by Woody Nece, a vital rebounder, Doug Garthoff, who consistently came through with big points, and Jim Diamond, a creative playmaker.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1959-60 season brought a good 12-4 record to Coach Louis Schreiner's JV team. A larger turnout contributed to this record as did the work of the players themselves. Mac Sexton, the captain of the team, proved valuable in his ability to rebound. Mickey Watts was the high scorer of the squad with a 13.89 average per game. The little Presidents placed fourth in the Northern Virginia League after they suffered a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of Mt. Vernon losing by a score of only one point, 39-40.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

This year the Freshman ball club was coached by Mr. Jerry Morris, a teacher at Thomas Jefferson. The baby Prexies had eighth and ninth graders filling their ranks. The starting five included Harley Swift, a promising eighth grader, Ricky Wenzke, an eighth grade end, Jim Garrison, chief in the rebounding department, Wicky Steele, Captain, and Jim Lucas, forward. Although the team had a rather poor season, Coach Morris felt he had the makings for a fine ball club as indicated by the bigger turnout this year.

VARSITY CREW

Coached by Julian Whitestone, the Presidents put a crew on the water for the fourteenth year. A fine turnout of upperclassmen has strengthened the upper boats and given the team depth. The crews were hampered early in the year by rough water conditions, but progressed as the temperature rose. The Varsity raced the Navy Plebes this spring as well as Hammond and W-L. In May, crews were entered in the Stotesbury Cup Regatta in Philadelphia, and later in the National Championship Regatta at Princeton, New Jersey.

The crews up to the third eight and the 135 lb. crew were coached by assistant coach "Sonny" Weiners. New crew members were tutored in the fundamentals of rowing, and each individual on the crew was given an opportunity to row in the races against Hammond and Washington-Lee. These crews did not participate in out-of-town regattas or the National Championship, but the members could progress to the higher crews. Practice was held six days a week at the Old Dominion Boat Club until the racing season started. The coaches were confident of another fine rowing season.

SPRING TRACK

The Prexie thin clads, coached by Bob Green, were looking forward to another sucessful season. With good strength in all events, the team appeared to be well balanced. The frontrunners were expected to be John Craddock, one of Northern Virginia's best in the hurdles, Tom Kenny and Jerry Prusaitis in the mile, Mike Ross and Danny Ferer in the sprints, and Jerry Ainsfield in the weights. This early in the season it was difficult to predict the stars in the other field events. This year George Washington was again host at the annual Alexandria Memorial Relays.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1960 season looked very promising for the Presidents' Ball Club. The team won the first three opening games by scores of 9-1, 7-0, 7-2 against McLean, Lee and Episcopal. However, the stiffer competition was ahead. The Presidents anticipated tough games against W-L, Wakefield and Hammond. Returning for the fourth year were Bob Philyaw and Jim Arnold and returning for the third year was Jim Diamond. The Presidents were very fortunate that their infield, excluding the catcher, would be left intact for next year.

JV BASEBALL

The 1960 JV Team was composed of fifteen players, all of whom were from the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior Classes. It was hoped that this year's larger turn out out and the greater experience of the squad over last year's team would contribute to a fine season. Among the most promising members of the team were Bob Combs, pitcher, John Kemper, first baseman, and Roy Diamond, third baseman. Returning for the second year was Bobby Payne, a part season player last year and a full season player this year.

COLONEL AND SECRETARY

A graduate of West Point, Col. Paul H. Mahoney is the cadet menter at GW. After retiring from the Army after a distinguished 31 year career, he taught an ROTC course in a private school in Wisconsin. His duties include acting as the commandant of the Cadet Corps and instructing the Cadets in the elements of military science. He has been here for four years.

Mrs. Yockey, the Colonel's secretary, has also served at GW for four years. In addition to handling all correspondence and doing all incidental typing, she keeps the Cadet records and sells Cadet uniforms. She also prepares the quarterly government reports on the ammunition, the equipment, and the enrollment of the corps.

KING AND QUEEN

Every year a senior cadet boy and a senior cadet girl reign as king and queen of the Cadet Ball. This year's king and queen were Captain adjutant Paul Klassett and private Joan Godfrey.

The Cadet Ball was held on May sixth in the Starlite room of the George Mason Hotel from eight until twelve o'clock. Music was provided by the orchestra of Joe McQuire.

KING AND QUEEN—Captain Adjutant Paul Klassett and Private Joan Godfrey in a Royal pose.

ADS

From financial aid given the yearbook by outside business organizations, the COMPASS staff has been able to publish a book again this year as in the past quarter century. Many Alexandria businesses have assisted GW throughout the year by selling football tickets to the traditional GW-W&L Thanksgiving Day Game and by contributing merchandise to be used as door prizes at several holiday benefit dances.

The co-operation given GW by these businesses in the production of its 1960 COMPASS is greatly appreciated by the students and faculty.

Congratulations
To Each Of You Of The Graduating Class of 1960

We are very grateful for the privilege of being of service, as your official portrait photographers, toward making this year's "COMPASS" a grand success.
The splendid cooperation given us by the editors, faculty, and student body was highly commendable and sincerely appreciated.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS:

A Message of Congratulations from

Virginia's Oldest National Bank

Although First & Citizens National Bank of Alexandria is the oldest National Bank in Virginia, founded in 1864, we dedicate ouselves to the future.

This year finds graduates at the threshold of tomorrow—entering a new and better world, with more challenges and more rewards than at any time in history. We of the First & Citizens National Bank share with you every confidence in this future.

Many of you, we are sure, will come to know First & Citizens National Bank personally in the years ahead. We look forward to the pleasure of serving you, as a financial counselor, as a neighbor, and as a fellow citizen. We pledge to serve you well.

Our heartfelt congratulations to each of you.
